What is one article that you find interesting about the 2008 election?

The Harris' rejection of doing little to end federal government deficits was the combination of real and artificial reasons.

The girl arrested in New England was a Chinese immigrant from Taiwan, America, who had been given up by the "Good Samaritans" who had found her when she was abandoned (orphan?) This little Chinese New Year festival, Chinese New Year.

There had been many cases that China, after a long of spreading, there were many cases around the world.

They're shitting their pants because there's not enough outrage over it, and they're shitting their pants because people want to see death cultist kebabs getting removed.

Their endless campaign to desensitize us to death cult violence has failed. We've been drowned in blood and body parts and death in the name of Allah and how "It's not terrorism!", and now that the table is turned by schitzophrenic who is just as much a product of their media as this place, they instantly call it terrorism before they know what's going on, unlike when death cultists plow through crowds chanting "allusnackbar".
They're so convinced they have us brainwashed to just accept death cult murder, when we reject their conditioning and celebrate members of the death cult getting a taste of their own medicine, they shit their collective pants and freak out.

"You can't watch that!"

But we can watch endless videos of ISIS murdering innocents. Why aren't THOSE videos banned and people jailed for hosting them?

If it was about fear, I come from pashtun dominant areas, and I've had my place bombed by your drones in Pakistan and thousands of people got killed and internally displaced, yet we still continued living here.

It would make sense for him to carry out an attack in countries like France, Germany, Sweden, Finland, England, Scotland, or even US where terror attacks are common by muslims.

He chose a peaceful country like NZ to avenge a swedish girl where terror attacks are not common. He can travel to Pakistan but can't travel to Sweden, UK, or france? That's what makes it fishy.

In one point in the video, a young muslim guy tries to run past and is shot point blank in the head and the shooter very quickly sweeps his vision so the camera isn't focused on the guy he just shot, but when he comes back through the hallway later, you see the young kid on the ground and there is zero evidence of exit wounds where they should be. In reality, the bullet goes in without making a big hole, but when it exits it leaves a pretty sizeable hole because of the transfer of energy and mass. But yet, there's no sign of that when there should be if the shooting was real.

In another video taken from the other mosque, the video captured is from one of the Muslim survivors, and the behavior in the video seen doesn't match characteristic behavior of surviving a mass shooting. First off, two guys try to help sit upright against the wall a guy who appears to have been head shot and blood even gushes from his head when they move him, very theatrically. Secondly, near the end of the clip you can see a person in a hat smiling and taking a selfie with a kid.

The refugees in sweden and other EU countries are still enjoying their stay. NZ doesn't take refugees in big numbers like in sweden.

Oh look, there's a muzzie in my country, LETS KILL HIM BECAUSE INVADER, RIGHT? Then you should kill the muslim prime ministers and presidents of other countries coming to visit your country, invaders right?

If you don't want to agree with me, alright, but remember (((ISIS))) will carry out an attack on a church or some public gathering in EU or NZ for revenge. MARK MY WORDS.

After the ISIS attack, Bolton will force trump to stop the troop withdrawal in Syria, Iraq, and maybe even Afghanistan.

From his manifesto I read that this was just "the straw that broke the camel's back". You really should read the manifesto, it is bit controversial (maybe intentionally so, I should think about it bit more) in some places but it will answer your questions, especially the "why" question. Note that he is not moslem and does not according to Quran principles, those concepts may be therefore alien to you.
